1

Prepare the Enchiladas

- Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Remove lid and label, if necessary. Reserve lid. When ingredient appears in recipe, remove from packaging. Thoroughly rinse any fresh produce and pat dry.
- Mix pulled pork, cream cheese, and corn on reserved lid until cream cheese is combined.
- Place tortillas on a clean work surface. Divide pulled pork-cream cheese filling equally among tortillas, placing on center of tortilla. Roll tortillas and place on a clean surface, seam side down.

2

Bake the Enchiladas

- Coat bottom of provided tray with $\frac{1}{4}$ cup enchilada sauce (reserve remaining for topping). Place enchiladas in pan, seam side down, and pour remaining enchilada sauce on top.
- Bake uncovered in hot oven until enchiladas are warmed through, 20-22 minutes.

Finish the Dish

- While enchiladas bake, stem cilantro, reserving whole leaves for garnish.
- Rest baked enchiladas 3 minutes. Top with queso fresco, sour cream, and cilantro leaves. Bon appétit!
